DAILY NEWS |

As reported by the respected columnist LINDA STASI in her widely influential column within the NEW YORK DAILY NEWS on Sunday, September 11:

"A new book, "Donald Trump, The Man Who Would Be King," from Blood Moon Productions, quotes a rant of Donald's against Native Americans, of all people.

After he found out that then-Connecticut Gov. Lowell Weicker had entered into a compact with the Mashantucket Pequot Tribal Nation to build the Foxwoods Casino, Trump whined to a U.S. House subcommittee, "(Weicker) favored the redskins over me." Weicker fired back that Trump was a "dirt bag," "con artist," and "a racist."

Weicker wasn't the first person—or the last—to say that, either."

MORE BOOK RELEASE NEWS:

Blood Moon proudly announces the designation of THE MAN WHO WOULD BE KING as September's BOOK OF THE MONTH by Florida's most respected Senior Citizen's review, Boomer Times & Senior Life Magazine, a monthly supplement of THE MIAMI HERALD.

As expressed to radio audiences throughout South Florida by Anita Finley, its publisher,
"This book is amazing! I can't put it down!"

Blood Moon's The Man Who Would Be King is an entertainingly packaged, artfully salacious, often lurid bombshell of a book. Another outrageous title in Blood Moon's Babylon series, it's a world-class first, a post-recession overview of America during its 2016 election cycle, a portrait unlike anything ever published on Donald Trump and the climate in which he thrived.
